The tree has roots deeply planted in the ground and its branches reach toward the sky.

*The tree symbolically shows us we need to deepen our spiritual resources to reach out to others and offer a safe haven
In order to grow.*

Professional Continuing Education Units will be offered by Wake AHEC.

Keynote Speaker - Craig Rennebohm, D. Min.

As a Chaplain, Craig has worked for the last twenty years on the streets of Seattle with individuals who are homeless and mentally ill. He serves as a resource to families and their loved ones facing mental illness; provides assistance to local congregations seeking to develop mental illness ministries and offers trainings for faith leaders, laity and mental health providers; and as a grassroots community health organizer. He is the author of Souls in the Hands of a Tender God, published in 2008, and the Gentle Bible, a set of daily readings supportive of healing, companionship and community, available from the Mental Health Chaplaincy in Seattle, which he founded.

Craig serves as a member of the National Alliance on Mental Illness Faithnet Advisory Board, the Disabilities Ministries Board of the United Church of Christ and as a consultant for Pathways to Promise, a national interfaith mental illness ministry.
